

The Atlanta Count Project goals are to: 1) provide metro-Atlanta service providers, policymakers, and youth advocates practical information on the size , nature, and needs of the homeless, precariously housed, and runaway youth in our community who are involved in forms of sex trafficking; 2) collect information that can be used to develop and refine policies, programs, and interventions to help these youth in our community; and 3) encourage a community-wide dialogue about the need and social determinants of youth homeless.
